

GLEN ECHO PARK

Glen Echo Park Partnership for Arts and Culture

HERITAGE DAYS AT GLEN ECHO PARK 2009 SCHEDULE OF ACTIVITIES

- Children's craft activity: "Create Your Own Carousel," 12 p.m. to 4 p.m. (free)
- Swing dance lessons, 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. (free)
- Dancing to recorded music, 1:30 – 2:00 p.m. and 3:30 – 4:00 p.m. (free)
- Ranger-led National Park Service tour featuring Spanish Ballroom history, 2 p.m. (free)
- Display panels telling the history of Glen Echo Park from late 1800s to 1960 – 12 p.m. to 4 p.m. (free)

Regular Weekend Activities at Glen Echo Park include...

Children and Families

- the Puppet Co. presents "Circus," 11:30 a.m. and 1 p.m. ($10)
- Adventure Theatre presents "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown," 11 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. ($12/children 12 and under; $15/adults)
- Carousel rides, 12 p.m. to 6 p.m. ($1.25)

Open Studios and Galleries

- Art Glass Center at Glen Echo, noon to 4 p.m.
- Glen Echo Pottery, noon to 5 p.m.
- Photoworks, "Wide Asleep – Half Awake," 1 to 4 p.m.
- Popcorn Gallery, "GlasScene," noon to 6 p.m.
- Yellow Barn Studio & Gallery, "Paintings by Catherine Miller & Chris Luckman," noon to 5 p.m.

Dancing

- Swing dance to the sounds of the Brooks Tegler Big Band in the Spanish Ballroom. Lesson from 8 to 9 p.m., followed by dancing until midnight. ($15)
- Dancing by the Bayou presents Cajun and Zydeco dancing to live music by the Yankee Zydeco Company. Bumper Car Pavilion. Lesson from 8 to 9 p.m. followed by dancing until midnight. ($15)